TO IMPORT FRUIT FROM HONDURAS

NEW FIRM ORGANIZED WHICH WILL TRADE DIRECT BETWEEN PENSACOLA AND HONDURAS.

A new fruit firm, to be known as the Honduras Mahogany and Fruit Co., has been organized here, and will operate a line of schooners between Pensacola and Spanish Honduras in this trade. Captain McNabb, owner of the Hondurian schooner Josie A. May, Captain Lloyd A. Scott, master of that vessel and Harry W. Simmons, of this city, are partners in the new enterprise and have leased the building opposite the Bagdad Sash Factory where the fruit will be stored as fast as it arrives. The latter will be president and resident manager.

The Josie A. May recently brought a large cargo of fruit here, and has sailed on the return voyage with cargo. She will return as soon as possible. The British schooner Union has also just reached port with a cargo of coconuts from Grand Cayman, and discharged the same. The schooner has now gone up to Bagdad to go on the docks for repairs.

The new firm intends dealing extensively in all classes of fruit, and will endeavor to build up a big fruit trade for Pensacola.

ARRESTED FOR DUMPING GARBAGE IN STREETS.

Three men, two cart drivers and one sweeper in the employ of the city, were arrested yesterday afternoon, upon complaint made by Chas. W. Johnson that they were dumping garbage on Garden street which should have been taken to the city garbage dump.

Mr. Johnson had complained previously about the men placing garbage on Garden street, as the scent arising from it was anything but pleasant to those residing in that section of the city, but the men said that they had been placing it there for some time, and continued to do so.

When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to act, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

FIRE LOSS WAS MORE THAN EXPECTED

All Goods on Second Floor of Welles-Kahn Co., Either Destroyed or Badly Damaged.

The loss to the Welles-Kahn Co., by the fire of Thursday night, proved to be much heavier than was anticipated. For yesterday when the place was examined it was found that not only had large quantities of goods been damaged on the lower floor by water coming from above, but that all of the stock stored on the second floor had either been destroyed or so badly damaged as to prevent its sale. The building, too, suffered more than was expected, the entire south end of the second floor being gutted and charred.

A careful examination was made of the building yesterday morning, and also of a portion of the stock. It is evident from the manner in which the frame work, cross pieces and ceiling are burned that the fire had been burning for three or four hours, and was only prevented from spreading further by the lack of a draught through the building.

There were no heavy goods stored in the second story. Only such articles as brooms, paper, buckets, wood-ware and tinware and light articles carried in stock were stored there. All of these goods are almost completely ruined. Near where the fire originated there were over five hundred dollars worth of brooms alone, and of all there are only a few dozen left.

Down stairs where the water ran through from the top floor, tea, coffee, beans, peas, sugar, flour, tobacco, cigars and other articles are ruined, and in many instances have swelled to such proportions as to burst from the barrels and boxes.

It was estimated yesterday that the goods destroyed and damaged had a value of about $8,000, while the damage to the building will be about $2,000.

It is expected that an insurance adjuster will reach here this morning to make an adjustment of the loss. Captain Welles is also expected here to-day from Athens.

DANDRUFF CAUSED BY A GERM.

A New Discovery That Kills the Germ and Prevents Baldness.

Pretty nearly all the hair preparations for dandruff have some merit in allaying itching of the scalp, and in being a fairly good dressing for the hair, but there is only one that recognizes what causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness, and that destroys the cause, a little germ—and that is Newbro's Herpicide. This germ eats its way into the scalp, it digs up the scalp into little white scales. Unless it is destroyed there's no permanent stopping of falling hair and cure of dandruff and baldness. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. Destroy the cause you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Almeida, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.

LITTLE BOY WAS BURNED TO DEATH

Son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarlton, Formerly of this City, Meets Horrible Death in Mobile.

The friends in this city of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarlton, who were former residents of Pensacola, residing at No. 217 North Cevallos street, will be pained to learn that their little son was burned to death in Mobile Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Tarlton and their little son moved to Mobile a little over a year ago, where they have since resided. Mr. Tarlton while living in Pensacola was engaged in inspecting lumber and timber.

Regarding the sad death of the boy, the Mobile item of yesterday contained the following:

"Merton, the three and a half year old son of Mr. George and Mrs. Speitel Tarlton, died last night at the family residence, No. 914 Church street, of severe burns sustained in the afternoon. Merton was born in Pensacola, and moved here with his parents about two years ago."

"The lad was in the yard playing with matches. He ignited one and it set fire to his clothing. Before assistance could be summoned he was enveloped in flames and was horribly burned before the blaze was extinguished. Dr. Inge was summoned and did all that medical science could to alleviate the unfortunate child's sufferings."

TICKLE THE TROUT.

Do It Cleverly, and You Can Gather Them In Easily.

I once spent my vacation in the little village of Schoenwald, in the Black forest. One day the son of the proprietor of the inn at which I was staying said that he was going out to catch some trout and asked me if I would accompany him. He was in his bare feet, his trousers rolled up, and he had a small, very much elongated keg slung by a strap over his shoulder instead of a reel.

The keg had a square opening on the top side, and he said that he would show me how to catch trout without tackle. We went down to a small brook running through a meadow near the house. He partly filled the keg with water, then wading a few yards up stream, stooped down and carefully felt under the long grass which hung over the bank. After awhile he lifted a nice brook trout out of the water and put it into the keg and then wading a little farther repeated the operation and took in all some twenty trout out of the brook.

He told me that he caught the fish by feeling carefully around under the grass at the edge of the bank, and when he felt one he tickled and stroked it until by a quick movement he could insert his thumb and forefinger into the fish's gills and then lift it out of the water. I went with him and saw him catch fish in this way several times.—New York Times.

NUMEROUS ARE THE ROBBERIES

Office of Tax Collector Roberts Robbed About Noon Yesterday. Home of Senator Mallory Entered and $45 Stolen.

Although many bold robberies have occurred in Pensacola during the past few years, about the boldest thieves that ever infested the city, are now at work. To enter the office of Tax Collector Roberts in the court house at noon and break open the cash drawer, and to climb up a post at the home of Senator Mallory and rob the room of that gentleman, marks a new era in thievery in Pensacola. At least it shows that the police have a bold person to deal with, or else one who is reckless beyond all reason.

Robbed Cash Drawer.

When Tax Collector Roberts left his office yesterday at noon to go to his dinner he locked the small cash drawer in his desk and closed down the windows fastening them securely, so he thought. The doors were also locked. When he returned he found a window up, the cash drawer broken open and the contents gone. This amounted to between $7 and $8, all in nickels and dimes, quarters and halves. The robber overlooked $20, which was in another compartment and covered by some checks.

The robbery occurred at a time when numerous persons were about the court house, and the window through which the person gained admittance faced towards the south and could be seen from both Palafox and Chase streets. It was also at a time when many merchants and clerks were on their way to dinner.

When Mr. Roberts entered his office after returning from home the first thing to attract his attention were two small pieces of wood, which had been broken from his desk. After a search he found that they came from the cash drawer, and had been jerked off when the drawer was opened. It appeared that the robber did not use any instrument to pry open the drawer, but pulled it open by main force.

Dust had settled heavily on the south gallery of the court house and the footprints of a barefooted boy could be plainly seen leading up to the window, and also just from the feet where he had placed them on the sill in getting in the office. The tracks were not those of a small boy, but apparently one about sixteen years of age. Blood hounds were carried to the scene, but could not take the trail, as many persons had passed along the streets.

Senator Mallory Robbed.

Senator Mallory was visited Thursday night by a thief, who secured in addition to $45, a valuable watch case, which is highly prized by the senator, and a bunch of keys. The senator's room is upstairs and in order to get there it is evident that the thief must have climbed one of the gallery posts. After reaching there it was easy for him to get into the senator's room. The pantaloons were taken, but apparently nothing else was disturbed. These were rifled by the burglar after he reached the ground, and were thrown in the rear of the residence. The robbery occurred after midnight, as the family was awake when the fire occurred on South Palafox street. Senator Mallory did not discover the robbery until yesterday morning when he arose and began a search for his trousers, which he could not find. He then realized that he had been robbed during the night. He at once notified the sheriff, and although the officers are at work on the case, they have so far discovered no clue.

Another Robbery.

Several night since Dr. Yates, who boards with Miss Anderson on East Intendencia street, was robbed of $30. He retired early in the night and did not awake until the following morning. When he did he discovered that some one had paid him a visit during the night and extracted $30 from his pocketbook, placing the latter back in his pocket.

Browning and an Umbrella.

A correspondent writes to the London Chronicle that he once came upon Robert Browning in Piccadilly in lively dispute with a stranger who had carried his closed umbrella over his shoulder or under his arm, with the end sticking out. Browning, walking behind, struck down the dangerous point with an energetic stick. "I always do it," said the poet with just indignation and in no measured tones. The man protested aloud, but Browning explained to the gathering crowd and justified himself fully. No one seemed to know how illustrious was the brawler.
